KCBC's 2026 Watershed Festival Brings Free Family Fun to Synovus Park

Free community festival features food, live music, vendors, giveaways, family activities, environmental education, and more.

[Columbus, Georgia] – Keep Columbus Beautiful Commission (KCBC) invites the community to the 2026 Watershed Festival on Saturday, October 3, 2026, from 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM at Synovus Park.

The Watershed Festival is a FREE community event featuring food, live music, vendors, giveaways, environmental education, family-friendly activities, mascot dance off and commemorative Help the Hooch T-shirts for attendees.

The festival is open to the entire community. Residents do not have to participate in the Help the Hooch Community Clean-Up to attend and enjoy the Watershed Festival.

This year's Watershed Festival is co-chaired by Ashley Stanley and Shanise Thomason, who are helping lead the planning of the community celebration at Synovus Park.
