Woman Killed in Dawson Street Stabbing, Son Arrested

A Columbus woman has died following a stabbing on Dawson Street, and her son has been charged with murder.

On Sunday, October 11, 2026, around 11 p.m., Columbus Police officers responded to the 2900 block of Dawson Street in reference to a stabbing. Upon arrival, officers located Camille Daniel, 56, suffering from stab injuries. She was transported by EMS to Piedmont Columbus Regional in critical condition.

The Violent Crimes Unit responded to the scene to take lead on the investigation.

During the preliminary investigation, detectives identified Daniel's son, Brandon Harmon, 37, as the suspect. Harmon was arrested shortly after the incident and initially charged with Aggravated Assault (Family Violence) and Possession of a Knife During the Commission of a Crime (Family Violence).

On Wednesday, October 14, 2026, Daniel died from her injuries.

On Thursday, October 15, 2026, Harmon was charged with Murder (Family Violence). He is scheduled to appear in Recorder's Court for a preliminary hearing on Friday, October 16, 2026, at 8 a.m.

This case remains under investigation. Anyone with information is urged to contact Sgt. R. Nicholas at 706-225-4363 or RobertNicholas@columbusga.org.
